WOLTCOM, INC

THE S e r v i c e

Woltcom solves short and long term human resource challenges by providing the highest qualified experts to meet your telecommunications needs. Woltcom specializes in engineering, installation, operations and maintenance of today's communication and data systems, including complete network analysis, planning, design and management consulting. As workforce requirements continue to change in a fast paced telecom market, Woltcom continually expands its organization to provide technical assistance for your fluctuating administrative demands.

Customers receive staffing flexibility, reliability, higher performance and a dedicated staff with a can-do, will-do work ethic. For the past three decades Woltcom has more than satisfied leading U.S. companies where successful telecommunications is everything. Absolute satisfaction remains Woltcom's trademark to service.

THE P e o p l e

Woltcom's managerial staff is comprised of 30+ year telecommunications veterans, positioning it at the forefront of knowledge and capabilities. Woltcom's expertise reaches beyond its permanent staff to its temporary help. Each contracting professional brings years of experience to the table, competently solving customers' challenges, spearheading unforeseen problems, and efficiently completing each task with the same dedication and assurance to customer satisfaction. Woltcom succeeds at employing the nation's highest skilled professionals by remaining an intensely people-focused company. At Woltcom, quality people doing a quality job is the differentiating factor.
